Bring any dish you would like — we encourage people of diverse backgrounds to share a staple dish from their family's origin. Let us come together in unity to feel the bonds of friendship that unite mankind. Invite guests if you'd like!

Luke Slott is a composer and singer-songwriter from Ireland. Born into a musical family in Dublin, he began playing music at an early age, learning guitar and trumpet from his father and studying piano at the Royal Irish Academy of Music. At the age of 18 he was signed to Sony Music but later set out on his own as an independent recording artist. He has released 6 albums of both vocal and instrumental music and has toured extensively as a solo artist, giving concerts and music workshops in 20 countries.

At the age of 21, Luke embraced the Bahá'í Faith, a worldwide faith that asserts the oneness of humanity as its central principle. He then began incorporating the Bahá'í Sacred Writings into his music and experimenting with how music can be utilized as a vehicle for exploring the spiritual dimensions of life.
